FOREWORD

As an additional bond between the achievements of the class of 1932 during their four years in Wa-Hi and their accomplishments later in life; as an image and reflection of the spirit of open good-will and loyalty that has flourished in our high school; as a record of the acquaintances which have grown into friendships; we issue this Senior Year Book. It has been our aim to record on its pages the spirit and achievements of our class, so that in the years to come, we may relive our memories of Wa-Hi.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Life's greatest pleasures are found in accomplishment. To plan some worthy enterprise--a book, a building, a nation, a worthy life--to prepare for it, to carry it through bravely, and then to feel a deserved glow of pride in its successful outcome, than this there is no higher satisfaction to be found. Plan, preparation, work, attainment--these are life at its best.

Youth, untrained, has long, long thoughts, hopes largely and dreams hopefully, yet ineffectually. The years bring only age and fewer dreams. Trained, with wits keen and abilities developed, youth weaves magic works out of its dreams. Hopes are brought to pass. Progress marches.

The school's responsibility for the dreams of its graduates gives one pause. When June comes we hope that our work has been well done, but well or ill, it is done. The class scatters to the rescue of the world. We give it nine "rah's" and a "skyrocket."

Each young enthusiast will be upright under the bludgeonings, will carry on to wrest the clubs of unreason and gloom from man, and to acknowledge and foster the joys of being and doing that abound in this best of worlds. In these builders of the future lies the power to bring to pass all that we have understood but lacked the heart and head to do.

W. A. LACEY.

TO MISS BREIHLZ

To the intelligent and skillful teacher whose guidance and leadership have been so greatly appreciated by the members of the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-two, we dedicate this book.

In appreciation of her services as our advisor, the members of the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-two lovingly dedicate

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

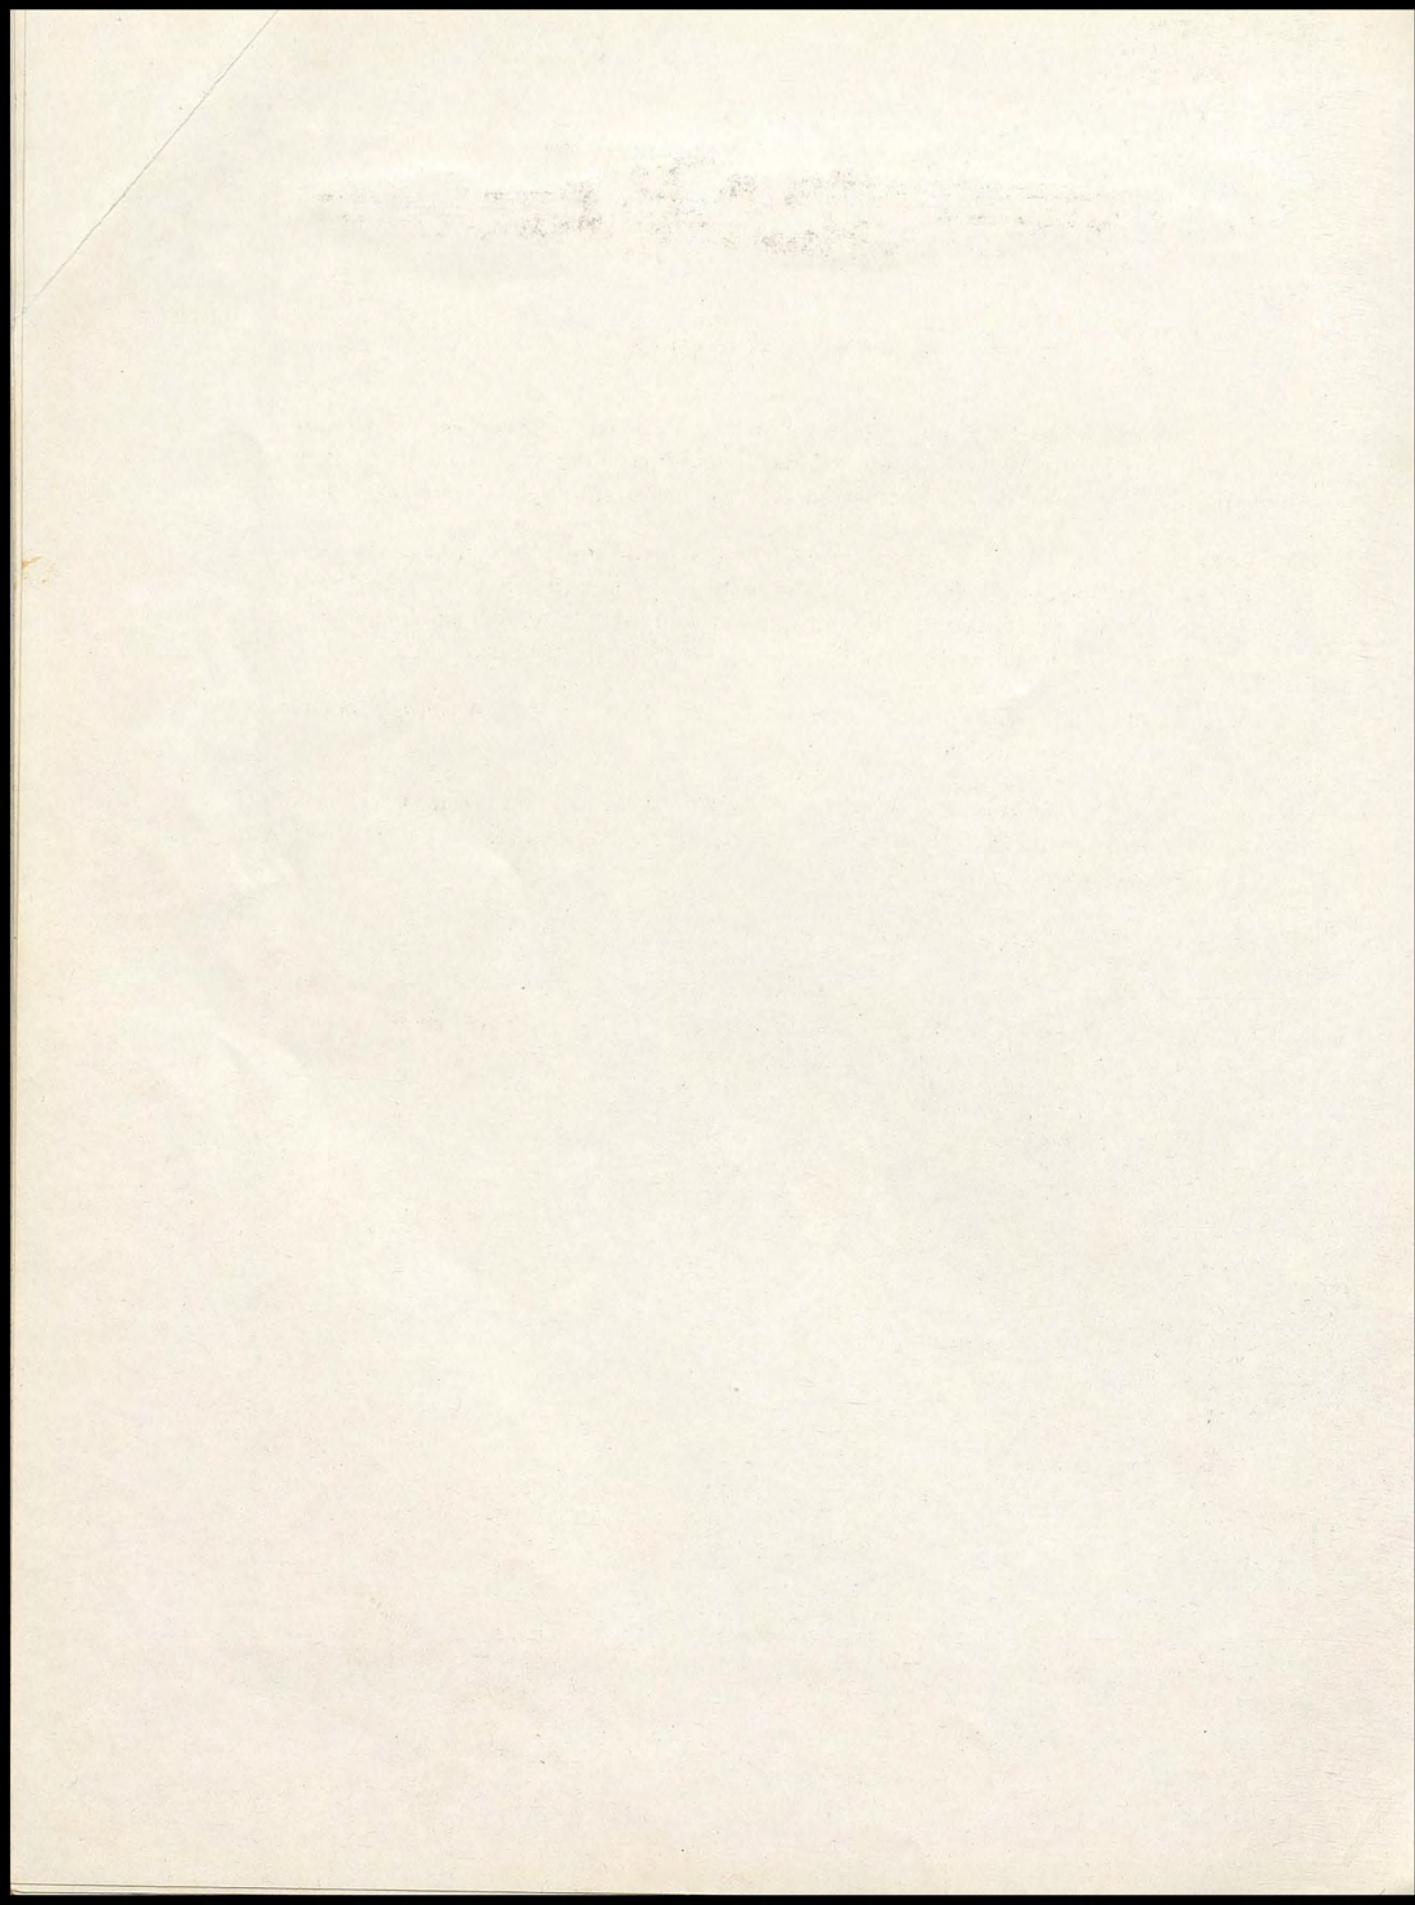

The Wa-Hi Chapter of the National Honor Society has been a prominent and active club in Wa-Hi for eight years. It has included in its membership over two hundred seniors, chosen because of their excellence in scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

True to the traditions of their society, the Honor Seniors of 1932 have not only maintained high scholastic standards, but they have also become capable leaders in many school activities.

The National Honor Society has brought to a close a very successful year under the capable leadership of Miss Draper.

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR CALENDAR

OCTOBER 22, 1931—"A small but appreciative audience" viewed the first frolic of the year. Kelly Wylie and his "Krazy Kleptomaniaes" furnished the racket. Although not exactly a financial success, it was considered a "snazzy" hop.

FEBRUARY 11, 1932—"Ye Olde Seniore Classe" slid smoothly and softly over the silky floors of the Wa-Hi gym at the Senior Valentine Frolic. The "Sour Strains" were furnished by Young Larsen and his "Lugubrious Lunatics". Prizes donated by local firms added to the zest of the occasion.

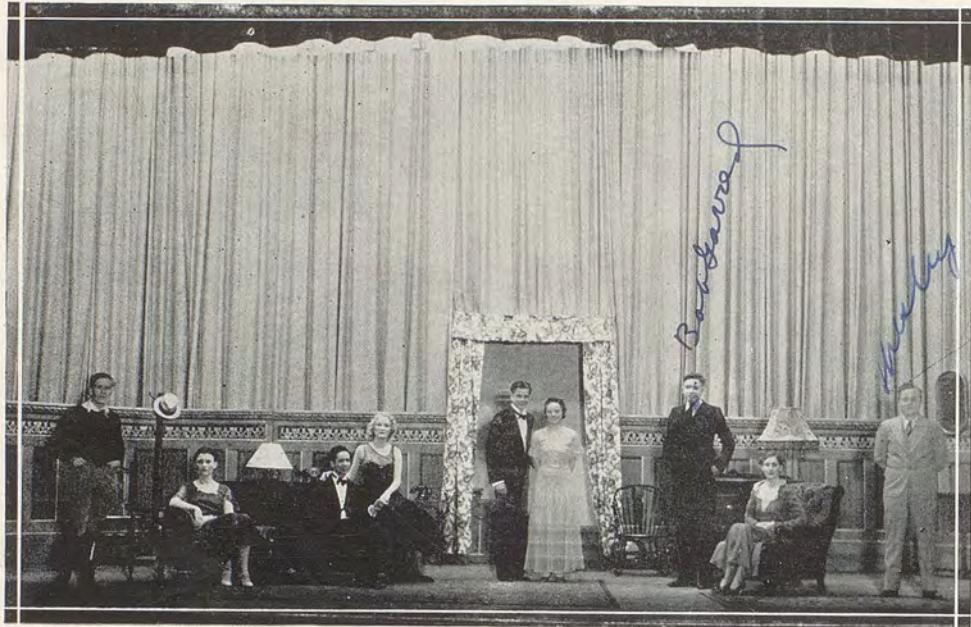

MAY 5, 1932—The Senior Class presented "The Patsy", a rip-roaring comedy well taken in by the audience.

JUNE 3, 1932—SENIOR PICNIC—The Class of '32 snuck out from under the motherly arms of Old Wa-Hi and tore into the hills where men are men and women are---err still Pansies.

JUNE 5, 1932—BACCALAUREATE—AHHHHHHHHH MENNNNNNNN!!!

JUNE 9, 1932—COMMENCEMENT—Mr. Kern picks up one of the diplomas, "Elmer Zilch," he reads in a slow, masterful voice. Little Elmer stirs from his perch and steps down to the platform. Clump, Clump, Clump, Clump. "Th - h - h a nk you s-sir," he squeaks. Clump, Clump, Clump.

The Senior Play, "The Patsy," which was presented with much success on Thursday, May 5, in the Wa-Hi auditorium, was one of the most outstanding productions of the year.

The unusually clever and interesting plot centered about Patsy, the heroine who won the coveted trophy and the man she loved with the aid of her kindly father, despite the interference of her mother and spoiled sister.

The cast, which was exceptionally well chosen, displayed a great deal of dramatic talent. The character parts were maintained very well with delightful interpretation and exceptional performance. The humorous and dramatic situations, ably handled by the players contributed to the excellence of the presentation.

THE LUCKY JADE

"The Lucky Jade", an all-school operetta, was presented in the Wa-Hi auditorium April 1 and 2 under the direction of Mrs. Hal C. Tilley and Miss Helen McCormick. One hundred and fifty students appeared in this two-act musical comedy by Edward Bradley.

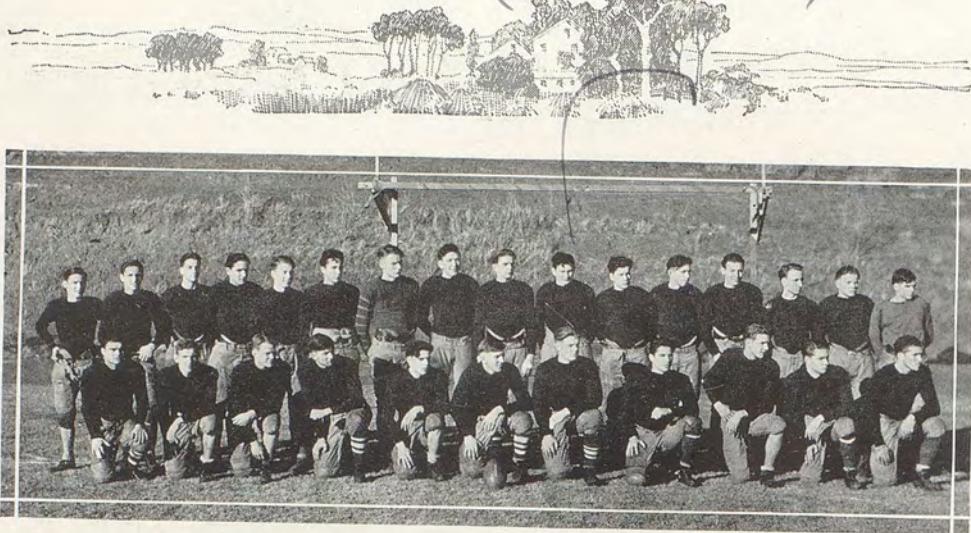

The main plot of this production centers about the theft of the "green ear" from a Voo Doo Temple in the heart of Africa. Amidst an attractive setting in old Virginia, a bashful aviator and his scheming New York rival vie for the love of a charming Southern maiden. The action develops in an entertaining manner, culminating in a clever climax in which the suitor from New York is exposed as a thief, endeavoring to secure the Jade from Liza, the negro maid.

The presentation was outstanding for its musical selections, witty dialogue, and interesting plot. The setting, the well-trained choruses, and the costumes gave variety and color to the production.

Its success was largely due to the talent of the cast and efficiency of the directors. The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Hal Tilley added much to the excellence of this musical performance which will be remembered as one of the finest of its kind.

FOOTBALL SEASON OF 1931

The football season opened this year with prospects for a promising season. As veterans, Coach Dimick had Long, Eyraud, Ehrlich, Davenport, Oswald, Hayes, Reiswig, Dietz, and Hancock. These men with several new ones formed a fine squad.

The Blue Devils opened the season of 1931 against Pasco on September 19, showing lack of sufficient practice. Their inability to hold on to the ball and weakness in plunging the line, lost them chances to score. Dietz and Hancock made several long runs in the second half, and the team finally came through with a victory.

On September 26, the Blue Devils drubbed the Waitsburg eleven 39-6. Scorers for Wa-Hi were Dietz, Hancock, Amen, Hayes, and J. Oswald, while the "big guns" for Waitsburg were Rhay and Zugar. Zugar, their star, did not play up to expectations as he was hurt early in the game.

On October 2 the Blue Devils met La Grande and trounced their eleven by a score of 27-0. Advance dope about La Grande's strong line was correct, but the squad outfought and outplayed them every minute of the game. Reiswig, Dietz, J. Oswald, and Hancock were the stars for Wa-Hi. Torrence, stellar end for La Grande, played brilliantly. The contest was well-played and well-won.

With high hopes for a victory over the North Central Indians the Blue Devils left for Spokane. The first half of the tilt the Wa-Hi men suffered an acute case of "stage fright" with the Indians leading 7-0. In the third quarter Wa-Hi gave the appearance of a real team. Hancock carried the ball to the one yard line where J. Oswald completed the touchdown. The Blue Devils relapsed after that and North Central scored three more touchdowns in quick fashion. The final score was 25-6. Anderson of North Central, Long, Dietz, and Hancock of Wa-Hi were the outstanding players of the game.

The following week the Blue Devils trounced the Pendleton Buckaroos, 39-0. As many of the varsity players were still suffering from injuries received in the North Central game, the second team was used most of the time. The future varsity of Wa-Hi piled up an impressive score.

On the 23rd of October the Blue and White met their old rival, Mac-Hi, and decisively defeated them by a score of 27-0. With only one regular backfield man, Mac-Hi was handicapped, lacking the offensive necessary for victory. Hufford was outstanding for Mac-Hi, while Reiswig and Hancock starred for the Blue Devils.

Advance information gave Wa-Hi a fine chance to conquer the Lewis and Clark Tigers, but the Tigers received all the breaks of the game and held the stronger Blue Devils to a 6-6 score. Wa-Hi had many chances to score but failed to secure the necessary final punch to put the ball over the goal line. Reiswig, Dietz and Hancock played a good defensive game. Wasmuth, a fiery Tiger, was the spark of the Lewis and Clark team.

Minus the services of Dietz, Wa-Hi went down to defeat before the highly praised Bantams of Clarkston. In the second half the Blue Devils started a drive of their own, and on a long, spectacular pass to Amen, scored their first and only 7 points. Clarkston was then hailed as being the outstanding team in Eastern Washington.

The Lewiston Bengals were severely trounced in the Armistice Day game. The under-rated Blue Devils showed everything in this tilt and snowed the Bengals under by a score of 25-0. With Dietz in the game the team worked like a fine machine. Wa-Hi's line showed up well with Long and A. Oswald starring and the back-field headed by Dietz playing brilliantly.

Dayton came to Walla Walla with an inexperienced team and gave the Blue Devil reserves a good game the first half, but the varsity turned the game into track meet, running up a score of 39-7.

The Turkey Day game with Yakima resulted in a severe drubbing for the Pirates. Hancock and Dietz were invincible with the result that the Blue Devils ran up a score of 26-0. The first half was close but the Pirates weakened in the second and allowed the Blue Devils easy scoring. Hancock played brilliantly in his last game for the Blue and White, both on offense and defense. This encounter finished a very successful season for the Blue Devils. With 8 games won, 2 lost, and 1 tie, they acquired a fine record that will stand for a long time.

BASKETBALL

One of the strongest defensive basketball teams Wa-Hi has turned out in recent years represented the high school during the season of 1931-1932 under the direction of Coach Harold A. Dimick.

The Blue Devils opened the season with a 23 to 15 "win" against Mae-Hi in the Whitman gymnasium, January 5. In the final quarters the Wa-Hi five outsped the visiting Pioneers to make victory certain.

After conquering the Oregon hoopsters, the Blue Devils traveled to Dayton and won a 16-12 session that was tied up to the last two minutes of play. Returning home, the boys had an easy time taking their next tilt, Clarkston being the victim by a score of 38 to 21.

In a game where close guarding was the outstanding feature, Wa-Hi next won from the Lewiston Bengals, 34 to 11. They then turned to a return game with Dayton, this time on the Whitman floor, and came through with a 26-15 victory in which Mart Irving, Blue and White center, was the main feature.

Pendleton's Buckaroos were unhorsed by the Blue Devils in the next fray, the game being played on the Oregon school's floor and ending 30 to 14 for Wa-Hi. A week later the two teams played a return game on the Whitman floor, with a second "win", this time by a score of 30 to 15, being registered by the Blue Devils. "B" team players were used most of the way.

Taking a trip north next, the hoop squad encountered difficulty the first night out in winning from the Lewiston Bengals, 33 to 30, since the Idahoans were having an "on" night. Victory came in the last three minutes of play. On the same trip Wa-Hi won again from Clarkston, this time by a score of 32 to 17.

Home again, the team went to Milton-Freewater and there again defeated the Mae-Hi Pioneers, 31 to 13. Next the Blue Devils traveled to Yakima and there met their first defeat of the season. An experienced team of Pirates, possessing unusual range and ability, gained a 29-16 victory.

In a return game with Yakima, played on the Whitman floor, the Blue Devils lost again, this time by a 19-17 margin, when the visitors gained a lead and successfully stalled in the closing minutes of play.

DISTRICT MEET

With the regular season of play finished, the Blue Devils turned their attention to tournament competition, but first encountered some bad breaks in the way of illness and injuries. Porter, Dietz, Amen and Irving all had minor illnesses, the first two suffering from "flu", so that by the time the team reached the district meet at Pullman, they were far from being at their best. Cooper also was bothered by a hurt leg and unable to play.

Clarkston was met first and disposed of, 23 to 18, with substitutes being used most of the game. The second game saw Pullman carry off the victory flag, however, in an overtime session, 22 to 20. Wa-Hi did not possess the strength to match Pullman's pace. Dayton was played next for the second place rank in the tourney and the right to go to the state meet, with Wa-Hi taking the game easily, 30 to 17.

STATE TOURNAMENT

Wa-Hi's Blue Devils opened their state tournament play still a bit below regular strength, but managed a 20 to 18 victory over Whatcom High of Bellingham. The score was tied at 11 at the half, but Wa-Hi gained the lead just before the final whistle and held it.

Bothell, a former state champion, fell before the attack of the Blue Devils the next day, 36 to 19, when Amen scored 19 points for a new individual mark in tournament play. The game was played that morning and took too much from the players, the team losing out later the same day to Renton, 22 to 19, after leading for the first three periods.

Lewis and Clark won third place in the tournament and Wa-Hi was sent back to sixth, when the Spokane team took a 35-25 verdict over the Blue Devils in the fourth game for Wa-Hi.

Two Walla Walla players gained all-state honors by their play, however. Irving was picked as the best center in the tournament, and Amen received a second-team guard position. Both were among the outstanding players.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The forwarding of interest in mathematics combined with pleasure is the principal aim of the "Math Club." At the educational and enjoyable bi-monthly meetings, talks are given by local business men and members, on subjects dealing with mathematics, such as angle trisection, the use of mathematics in architecture, in surveying, astronomy, or watch manufacturing. Mathematical puzzles are solved and refreshments are served at the close of the meetings. The sponsoring of an all-school chess tournament for the Lynn Trophy is undertaken each year. The success of the club is largely due to the able efforts of its advisor, Miss Katherine Lynn.

CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club, which has as aims for its members training in social ability and character, is pledged to support the advancement of learning. Every other Tuesday varying programs, such as classical myths and plays, or the beauty culture of the Romans, are presented. The sponsoring of the annual Roman banquet at the Marcus Whitman Hotel proved to be the outstanding social success of the year. Other social functions held were a picnic breakfast and a club dance.

The club owes much gratitude to Miss Lucille McIntyre, advisor, for her valuable aid in all its work.

SPANISH CLUB

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to acquaint its members with the customs of a real Spaniard. Membership is open to students who have completed two years of Spanish and those in Spanish classes. One of the social meetings each year is a Mexican Christmas party, with a "pinata". For the spring picnic directions in Spanish for finding the place were found posted along the way. The club advisor is Miss Myrtle Falk.

GERMAN CLUB

"Des Lorelei Verein" was organized February 24, 1922, under the supervision of Fraulein Peitz. At this time eighteen members were admitted to the organization. The purpose of the club is to promote and stimulate interest in the traditions and customs of the German people; to study the music and the folklore with which the country abounds; to study the lives of great German poets, musicians, and statesmen, and to obtain information about the Germany of to-day.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an International Honorary Society for high school journalists. It was founded in 1926 for the purpose of instilling the ideal of scholarship in the minds of its members, and of developing better journalists. At the present time, the Wa-Hi Chapter has six active members. They are: Petty Jacobs, Genevieve Griffiths, Robert Miller, Dorothy Struthers, Floyd Fitzpatrick, and Bob Garred. Of this number, the last three are members of the Class of '32.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club of Wa-Hi, organized in 1928, meets the second and fourth Tuesday of every month. The meetings this year have been devoted mainly to studying "Educational Dramatics" under the guidance of Miss Dessie Cox, the sponsor. For its annual play, "Adam and Eva" was presented, the proceeds of which were used to purchase other modern plays. The social calendar consisted of parties, dances, and a picnic.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club is an organization for students enrolled in art work. The aims of the club are to inform the members of the practical uses of normal arts and to promote friendship among the Industrial Arts students. At the meetings, which are held twice a month, the members are afforded excellent opportunities to hear speakers from outside of school. Mr. Meyers is the advisor of the club.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The aim of the Home Economics Club, which was established this year, is to develop personality, leadership, self-reliance, initiative, social poise, and interest in Home Economics. The club successfully acted out the play "This Modern Generation" for the Girls' Assembly. They sponsored a Foods and Health exhibit, combined with a display of wearing apparel which had been made by the girls. Much of the success of this club has been due to the enthusiasm and efforts of the advisor, Miss Sara Stenson.

ATHLETAE

Athleta, under the supervision of Miss Ruth Prescott, is an honorary athletic society with all girls who have earned athletic letters either in basketball or in personal efficiency eligible as members. This society tries to promote girls' athletics, to develop good sportsmanship among the girls, to foster loyalty, and to raise the scholarship of the school.

OFFICERS' CLUB

The commissioned officers of the Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. chapter under the leadership of Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, form the membership of the Officers' Club. Their aim is to further the knowledge of the basic principles of military and to assist in maintaining a high state of morals and soldierly discipline. Two successful dances were sponsored during the past year.

NON-COM CLUB

A co-organization similar to the Officers' Club is the Non-Com Club which was re-established this year. The membership is elected from the non-commissioned officers of the R. O. T. C. unit. They aim to establish better relations among members of the unit and help further military science. Their helpful advisor is Mr. E. L. Bruns.

F. F. A.

The Green Hand, Future Farmer, State Farmer, and National Farmer are the four degrees toward which the forty-five boys who comprise the membership of the Wa-Hi F. F. A. chapter work hard to achieve. The local group is a member of the national organization of Future Farmers of America, whose ideal is for better organization of high school agricultural boys. Members of the F. F. A. chapter are chosen each year for the judging teams which are sent to state and local fairs. This year Roger Moore, a charter member of the local chapter was the first Washington F. F. A. member to take the American Farmer Degree at Kansas. The chapter is under the capable direction of Mr. Chester Lybecker.

HI-Y

The National Hi-Y organization, sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., is represented at Wa-Hi by the Walla Walla Hi-Y Club. The membership, based upon citizenship, scholarship, and service, is made up of boys from the three upper classes. The club is interested in forwarding activities for the benefit of the school. A dance and several inter-class basketball games were among the events undertaken by its members this year. Mr. Paul Reed, faculty advisor, Gerwyn Jones, Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Fred Opperman, ministerial, form the advisory council.

EL ADREA

El Adrea, under the able supervision of Miss Faye Hamm, has had a prominent place in the life of Wa-Hi. This year the thirty-two girls were divided into committees of four, each planning an educational meeting. The programs consisted of two interesting talks by outside speakers and visits to the creamery, telephone company, meat-packing plant, and candy company. A dance given at the home of one of the members, a progressive dinner, and an assembly for girls were among the social activities of the organization this year.

SENATE CLUB

The Senate Club is a social organization whose purpose is to promote comradeship among the boys of Wa-Hi, and to better the interests of the school at large. It is composed of thirty boys elected from the three upper classes. This year they successfully defended their intra-mural football title. The sponsoring of a "depression" dance and a picnic were among its activities. Mr. Harrison Clark is the genial and enthusiastic advisor.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The Camp Fire Girls is an organization formed for the purpose of fostering companionship and creating a spirit of co-operation and friendliness among the girls. In Wa-Hi there are three Camp Fire Groups, Tillicum, Okihi, and Waukeenah with guardians, Miss Frances Campbell, Miss Mary Scholl, and Miss Bernice Becker.

GIMMEL TETH

Gimmel Teth, established in Wa-Hi years ago by a group of girls desiring intellectual development and more social contacts, has during these years continued its programs in accordance with the plans of its founders.

Millicent Cass' new book, "Girls", has served as a basis of study this year. The requirement of at least one educational meeting each month is strictly adhered to.

Being allowed two social functions each semester, the club sponsors a dance, formal or informal, and usually entertains its members at a fireside, or a progressive dinner.

Through the advisorship of Miss Bickelhaupt, Gimmel Teth has had two very successful years.

W. W. CLUB

The football, basketball, and track "letter men" make up the membership of the honorary W. W. Club. Besides being a social group, they are responsible for the conduct of the students at athletic games and "pep" rallies. The social events undertaken by the group consists of the annual smoker and picnic. The activity of the club is largely due to the capable leadership of Mr. Dimick, the advisor.

The Girls' Federation boasts of being the largest club in high school. Automatically upon enrollment in Wa-Hi, every girl becomes a member.

The work of the Federation is carried on through the following departments: dress standards, entertainment, dramatics, finance, friendship, and school improvement. The heads of these six departments and their assistants, one representative from each class, and the vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the Federation, make up the personnel of the president's cabinet.

The Girls' Federation occupies a prominent place in the social and intellectual functions of Wa-Hi.

SENIOR YEAR BOOK QUEEN

The charming miss above, Miss Anna Mae Davis, was selected by ballot as the most popular girl in Wa-Hi. Miss Davis has been sponsor of Company D and has been prominent in school affairs. Hats off to you, Anna Mae, Wa-Hi's most popular girl!

PEP BAND

The Wa-Hi "Pep" Band and "Boosters" Club, composed of twenty musicians chosen from the R. O. T. C. Band, was organized to stimulate interest and instill "pep" in school activities. Under the skilled direction of Mr. H. C. Tilley, the band made its first appearance of the year at the Wa-Hi - North Central football game in Spokane. Two trips were made to Pendleton, one early in the football season, the other to accompany the basketball team. On one of the best trips of the year, the band went to Clarkston. In all, the group travelled over seven hundred miles. Delightful and lively concerts were presented in assemblies and over the local broadcasting station. Awards in the form of royal-blue slip-on sweaters were presented to members who had successfully completed one school year of playing.

CLASS HISTORY

In the book of memories which reposes in the heart of every senior of the class of '32 is a chapter dedicated to countless happy recollections of a successful high school career in Wa-Hi. The opening lines of this book perhaps are filled with the hopes and the fears that dart through the thoughts of a freshman embarking on an unknown venture, unconscious of the happiness which awaits everyone in Wa-Hi. An unbounded enthusiasm creeps in between the lines of the narrative, an enthusiasm upheld by these names which we find engraved upon the first pages: Grayden Hoover, president; Mary York, vice-president; Wendell Falkenberg, secretary; Roberta Van Vranken, treasurer; Mabel Long and James McKee, representatives to Interclass Council. The class colors, cherry-red and black, and the class flower, a red rose, are pressed between the pages. Now the words fairly dance across the page with joy. Before the reader's eye, a pleasant day in spring, a band of merry revelers, and the memories of a freshman picnic are recalled. Again the names of class leaders grace the page: John Marshall, president; Mildred Shepherd, vice-president; Jack Bond, secretary; Jack Whiteman, treasurer; Arthur Hawman and Dorothy Jokisch, Interclass Council. As the words fade, we glimpse upon that page these lines: "To our most able advisor, Mrs. Leonard."

As we turn another page in the book of memories, our glance rests upon this inscription: "Lovingly dedicated to our capable advisor, Miss Juliana Draper, and our officers: Don Woodward, president; Elizabeth Chandler, vice-president; Dorothy Lofthus, secretary-treasurer; Edward Grady and Betty Bond, student council. We esteem also in this dedication those leaders for the second semester of the sophomore year: Don Woodward, president; Anne Kain, vice-president; Dorothy Lofthus, secretary-treasurer; Inez Fisher and Jack Whiteman, Interclass Council." The closing lines bring to the reader fond memories of the enjoyable sophomore picnic and frolic.

Though the next page fades but too swiftly from our vision, we scan these names inscribed there: Mrs. Dunn, our counselor; John Marshall, our president; Laura Kelly, our vice-president; Jack Struthers, our secretary-treasurer. An all-school frolic, our narrative tells us, added to the enjoyment of that year which terminated under the successful leadership of John Marshall, Laura Kelly, and Mildred Shepherd.

As thought turns the last page thronged with many remembrances, we see written there-upon the names of the leaders of our class for the first semester: James McKee, president; Geneva Thompson, vice-president; and Jessie Wills, secretary-treasurer. As the memories fade, we see penned upon the page the names of the leaders for the second semester: James McKee, Loveta Williams, and Jessie Wills. Of the accomplishments of this class, so our chronicle asserts, the several frolics for which Paul Durand, chairman, was responsible, were most enjoyable. An excellent senior play, "The Patsy", was presented by a talented cast. A prelude to the book of memories, the Senior Year Book was published by an able staff under the direction of Jessie Wills, editor. On the last page of our book, there remains as it shall remain in our hearts, a fitting tribute to our beloved and efficient advisor, Miss Esther Breiholz.

So ends this chapter in the memory book of the class of '32-a class which spent in Wa-Hi four successful and happy years, the memory of which will linger long after the fragrance of graduation roses has faded.
